Essay for George Smutny and family on my Lewy body disease
Homework assignment #2

Starting from the beginning of my diagnosis I'd have to say I was and still am still shocked about my diagnosis with Lewy body disease. I am sure both my doctor and wife are doing their best to put up with me!

My problem is I can no longer drive; I want to play golf and live my life the way I did in the past without being told that everything will be okay; just hang in there. I really don't know what that really means??? Are the meds really working or will we just move into a different phase" ...honestly, I am not sure:

That, said, I do trust my doctor, my wife is a champ at keeping me grounded and following the rule and keeping me grounded!

Not sure where and when I will have my normal lifestyle back.

I have done a good job in keeping my medical issues to myself: and away from friends to include my wife and not going back to normal routines to That said, I also do not know when I can include driving again driving honestly, I am not sure why it is not included now As mentioned earlier, I know my wife and doctor are doing the best they can but sometimes was appears to be removed from my life.

Thanks for taking the time to hear me out; I am sure all will be back to my normal life style soon!

One thing I can say to others who are just starting this care is to hang in there and trust your doctor and go with the flow!

I think
